Welcome to the Morris Arboretum

Whether this is your first time at the Arboretum or you’re a regular visitor, we are glad you’re here!

We invite you to wander our beautiful paths and grassy areas, but we ask you to be mindful of the following:

Please do not:
• Walk on garden beds
• Climb on trees or plants
• Wade or swim in water features
• Use sporting equipment on the grounds

Key to the Arboretum

Getting Around
- Paved Paths
- Unpaved Paths
- Steps
- Bridges
- Green-Ribbon Bike Trail
- Garden Beds/Wooded Areas
- Lawn

Amenities
- Visitor Center & Shop
- Restrooms
- Restrooms (seasonal)
- Water Fountains
- Emergency Phone
- Wi-Fi Access
- Parking
- Cafe (seasonal)
- Picnic Area

Features
- Visitor Center & Shop
- Out on a Limb Tree Canopy Walk
- Rose Garden
- Pennock Flower Walk
- Orange Balustrade
- Garden Railway (seasonal)
- Hawk Wall
- Oak Alleé
- Azalea Meadow
- Springhouse
- East Bank Meadow
- Japanese Hill & Water Garden
- Swan Pond
- Log Cabin
- Step Fountain
- Japanese Overlook
- Seven Arches
- Mercury Loggia
- English Park
- Key Fountain
- Sculpture Garden
- Fernery
- Gates Hall (offices)
- Two Lines Sculpture
- Magnolia Slope
- Entrance Kiosk
- Pumphouse
- Wissahickon Creek

Summer of Swings
- Bur Oak Tree Swing
- Giant Dogwood Tree Swing
- Henry Chinquapin Tree Swing
- A-Frame Swing
- Bee Tree Linden Tree Swing
- Bebb Oak Tree Swing
- Oriental Plane Tree Swing
- White Oak Tree Swing
- Chinese Chestnut Tree Swing
- Black Walnut Tree Swing

Guide to Plant Collection Labels:
- Common name
- Scientific name
- Scientific family name
- Common family name
- Natural range
- Accession number

Chestnut Oak
Quercus montana
Fagaceae
Beech Family
E. North America
1932-0627-A